AT HARLEM AGAIN.

Harlem started its second two weeks meeting yesterday, and taking everything into consideration it was a rousing beginning.

One would hardly believe that so much in the way of building could be done in two weeks as has been accomplished at the track.

A new double-deck grandstand has been erected, and although it is not completed by a long way, it was ready for use, and is a great improvement over the old stand. It has a deeper slant, and consequently a more perfect view of the track can be had from any corner of it. In the old stand those back of the first two rows could hardly see the races at all.

The upper part of the new stand will be fitted up with private boxes, which will be a great improvement and one sure to be appreciated by those able and willing to pay for exclusive accommodations.

Yesterday's main racing feature was a condition race at one mile and in it was a lot of speed. Tenby, who ran a mile in 1:39½ his last out, appeared to have the best chance, and was made favorite. He perhaps was the best horse, but Nutt used poor judgment in chasing after Eugenia Wickes in the early stages of the race, and when The Devil challenged him in the stretch he had nothing left to finish with and the consequence was The Devil won easily.

That old Meddler is better now than he ever was before was demonstrated in the fourth race. This was a three-quarter dash and such fast ones as Goebel, Hugh Penny and Sim W. were among the entries.

Goebel ran better than 1:13 with ten pounds more weight up than he had in this race when last out and it seemed that he should win. At any rate all the wise ones at the track bet on him. They should have "cashed" but Master Vitatoe, after having the race in hand, took a nap and Meddler coming with a rush passed him like a flash fifty yards out and before Vitatoe knew what had happened the race was over and Meddler was the winner. For his carelessness the judges set Vitatoe down for the meeting.

The mile and three-sixteenths selling race furnished quite a bit of interest. The betting on it was lively. Kris Kringle closing favorite at 2 to 1, with 11 to 5 quoted against Croesus. Neither of the choices were ever dangerous. Einstein, at 20 to 1, went to the front shortly after the start and won all the way. At the finish he was pulled to a walk three lengths in front of Kris Kringle.

The first race on the card was at seven furlongs under selling conditions and Newsgatherer, at the liberal price of 10 to 1, won after a hard drive by about a half length from Maceo and Graziella.

"Uncle Jim" Gray, after trying a long time, finally broke his spell of ill luck on local tracks in the second race. He started his King Regent—Artistic filly, Annis Palmer, and at the false price of 12 to 1 she won a game race by a neck in a hard drive from Iznik. The latter is a very fast gelding, but seems to be a coward.

Helen's Pet got a flying start in the last race and after leading all the way, won by three-quarters of a length from Antiquary. The latter was far the better horse of the two, but Rutter could not keep him straight, and after he swerved in behind Helen's Pet in the stretch could not get him to the outside of her again, and so they finished lapped on.

M. Jordan will sell his entire string of horses at public auction at an early date. The star of the string is Gold Fox, who can run a mile close to 1:40 any day.

Master Willis Dorsey, on his way east to enter Sam Hildreth's employment and learn to ride, was at the track with his brother Ed. The latter rode for B. J. Johnston. Willie has a great record in the saddle. He is not more than eleven years old but has a riding percentage of 1,000. He rode one race on David Tenny in an Owners' Handicap and won.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY STAKES.

The Coney Island Jockey Club has announced a great list of rich stakes, to close July 15. In some respects the most important event in the list is the $25,000 Annual Champion Stakes, which will be run for the first time next year. It already has 408 entries and is open for additional entries of the foals of 1898 and first entries of the foals of 1899. The entries it will receive July 15 will no doubt swell the total well on the way to 700. The other stakes are well established fixtures known to all horsemen and will in the main be run off at the club's autumn meeting of this year. The complete offering is as follows:

For 2-year-olds:
Great Eastern Handicap, guaranteed value $5,000; Futurity Course.

Jumping races:
Westbury Steeplechase, $1,200 added; Full Course.

Mincola Hurdle Race, $800 added; 2 miles.

CRACK FILLIES NOT TO MEET.

The effort to bring about a special race, July 1, between the crack fillies May Hempstead and Admiration, together with such colts as their owners might deem fast enough to compete with the two flying young mares, seems to have fallen through after having been considered almost a surety. A gossiping dispatch from New York says of the matter. Mr. Paget says: "If I should put Admiration in such a race and win it, the filly would incur a big penalty in future events. I think that I see more in running her in overnight races, such as she won yesterday, than in a race worth $2,500 or $3,000. I also object to sending Admiration around the turn at Sheepshead Bay. If the race were at a mile out of the chute I might think better of it. My objection to sending Admiration around the turn is not, however, the main one. The one which I first gave is more important.

Winner—B. g. by Enquirer—Bonnie Meade. Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving hard. Newsgatherer ran one of his good races. He got away flying and Rutter kept him at it. He ran the third furlong in 11½ seconds. This gave him a commanding lead. Everett took Maceo back on the far turn and brought him up with a rush in the stretch. He would have won if the race had been a furlong further. Graziella ran an honest race. Egbart was all tangled up at the start and had a rough journey. Lucky Star had no excuses and did not run his race. He can do better. Tony Licalzi showed speed. He can win when placed right. Tappen was beaten off all the way.

Scratched—(12596) Fintan, 94; 12906 Moroni, 112; 12883 Martha Fox, 94; 12968 Ernest Wiles, 97; 12883 Braw Lad, 120; 12909 Amelia Fono, 100; (12937) Einer, 105; 12937 Woodranger, 100; 12969 King's Guard, 103.

Time, 12½, 23½, 36½, 48½, 1:02.

Winner—B. f. by King Regent—Artistic. Post 15 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving to the limit. Annis Palmer, under clever handling, ran an extra good race. She is an extremely game filly and stood a drive from the three-furlong post home. Iznik is short on courage. When Harrington drew the whip on him he stopped badly and would have been beaten for the place in a few more strides. Frangible had had racing luck and was badly ridden. Flick took him in and out and all over the track. Sea Rover's was a smart race. He was hardly ready to go this far. John Grigsby was much used at the post and refused to try when he got away. The colt has a sore mouth, and this accounts for his showing.

Scratched—12935 Mitten, 100; 12850 First Past, 101; 12481 Brown Thrush, 93; Belle of the Glen, 93; 12802 Man of Honor, 101; 12177 Jake Weber, 100; Star Cotton, 96.

Winner—B. g. by Riley—Maggie B. Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won under a pull; second eased at the end after early pressure. Einstein had the foot of the party and held it safe all the way. The performance was a great improvement over his last race. Kris Kringle has evidently had too much of it. He was dull of speed and Dupe was obliged to use the whip all the way to keep him up. Croesus also loafed the entire journey and at the finish Hill seemed more tired than the horse. Possum was interfered with on the stretch turn. Boanerges acted meanly at the post. He would go every way but the right one and gave the starter a world of trouble. He was not ready to race and stopped badly after going half a mile. Elkin ran a bad race. Throw it out.

Scratched—12967 Prince Blazes, 101; 12716 Winslow, 99; 12939 Hosi, 95; 12882 Monongah, 97; 12967 Banquo II, 115; 12334 Hoya, 83; 12967 Robert Bonner, 108; 12654 George Lee, 99.

Winner—Ch. g. by Long Taw—Meddle. Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving to the limit; second and third doing their best. Rutter, with Meddler, simply stole the race. Goebel had him beaten at the sixteenth post but Master Vitatoe took a nap and threw the race away. The judges suspended the boy for carelessness. Meddler is in his very best form at present. He doesn't act nearly as badly at the post as Winner—Br. f. by Kingston—Hypocrite.

Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. Admission went away as she pleased when given her head. She is a grand filly, and if she can carry weight is probably the best filly in training. Isidor ran his race. He is good, too. Filon d'Or was doing his best. The others were outclassed. Kingdon ran into the fence and injured his stifle. He did not finish.

Scratched—12785 Benckburn, 124; 12862 Prime, 120; 12834 Swifts, 120; 11867 Kentucky Colonel, 115; (12692) Geze, 113; 12660 Inenramara, 113; 11805 Nautch Girl, 112; 12601 Oliver Mc, 111; 8165 Senford, 108; 12898 Lepida, 103; (12356) Montanic, 91.

Winner—Br. m. by Maxim—Fleurette.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily. Not much doing behind. Maxine ran a much improved race and was well played. Charentus and Clonsilla are at their best and ran good, game races. Merry Prince could not raise a gallop early and his race was very bad in the light of his recent needs. Jeannot was slow to get going, but is worth watching with light weight up. Kirkwood needs a let up. The others are of little account at present.

Scratched—12948 Azucena, 105; 12946 Sweet Caporal, 98.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Mischievous was far the best of an ordinary lot. Plucky ran his race. Brusquerie closed fast after a slow beginning. Carrollton and Matchim ran well for their first time out, but both tired badly at the end.
Mischievous, place, out. Plucky, place, 6 to 5.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily. There was nothing to the race but Ethelbert. He is a good colt, perhaps the best eastern three-year-old. Kinley Mack will do in a little cheaper company. Glengar showed speed.

Scratched—12901 Little Saint, 115; 12901 Lackland, 112; 12901 Manlius, 102.
Kinley Mack, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Glengar, place, 7 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by Loyalist—Pride.
Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won in a long, hard drive. Prejudice and Shrove Tuesday each ran a good, game race and fought every step of the way for the last three furlongs. Oread with a good boy up will get out of the maiden class with little trouble. Tilly Ann is speedy and worth watching. She has worked well. Tristan Belle was a false alarm. Belle of Lexington is improving. Lassie James ran through the fence and across the infield, throwing her rider.
Scratched—12902 Pillager, 95; 11619 Descubridora, 94; 12902 Her Ladyship, 94.
Overweights—Little Squaw, 1 pound.

Winner—Br. c. by Deceiver—Maudlin.
Off at first break to a good start. Won handily. Decanter raced Holland into submission and came away handily though he was ridden a bit to stall off Fast Black. The latter laid out of it too long or he might have won. He was the strongest horse at the finish. Twinkler ran a good race after his long let-up. There was too much weight on Gomez. The hot pace settled Holland. He quit in the stretch and was pulled up. The time is a new record for the course.

Scratched—12723 Survivor, 108.
Decanter, place, 7 to 5; show, out. Fast Black, place, 4 to 1; show, out. Twinkler, show, out. Maximo Gomez, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Holland, place, 2 to 5; show, out.
